Our Wines

Descended from a wine producing family in Abruzzo Italy, Remo is passionate about wine, and has carefully selected each of the wines which we serve.

All of our house wines are from the Abruzzo region, and our menu is mainly Italian although we are happy to sell wines from other parts of the world should they be of the quality that Remo enjoys!

Please browse our wine display and we'll be happy to give a taste if we we have a bottle open!
